

THINK-PAIR-SHARE

Think-Pair-Share is a cooperative learning strategy that is done in three stages. First, students THINK about a question or prompt. Next they PAIR up to discuss possible answers with their partners, and decide what they think is the best answer. Finally, they SHARE their answers with the class. The sharing is often done in a Roundrobin, and answers may be recorded on the board.